TALK OF THE TOWN.

The store of B. W. Hooker & Co. will be open until noon Monday. All goods bought then will be delivered that day. Dr. Margaret Carleton of Keene, N. H., arrived in the city this morning or a visit at the home of her father, Edwin Carleton. For a handsome Christmas gift what could be more acceptable than a silver tea service in one of the late designs at M. L. Walker's. Miss Monti Mudgett returned last evening from Boston, where she is attending Simmons college, to visit her mother, Mrs. F. B. Mudgett, during the holidays. Miss Mary Carleton entertained the members of her Sunday school class yesterday afternoon at her home on Highland avenue. A very pleasant time was enjoyed. There was a good-sized attendance at the third night of the Ladies of the Macabees' fair which has been held in Hale's Pavilion in spite of the many counter attractions. A large number enjoyed the dancing to music furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra. Holiday shoppers should not fail to read C. N. Kenyon & Co.'s Bargain Store three-column advertisement on this page and also their special advertisement at top of column on page three, which appears for the first time today. There is no better place to trade than at Kenyon's Bargain Store. The Central Labor Union of Barre and vicinity held a regular meeting last evening, but did little business of importance outside of the routine order. A vote was taken, as usual, to support the Vermont Union Signal, the labor union paper published at Rutland, and one case of alleged non-union participation was discussed, with no action being taken.

HEADQUARTERS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

We were never better prepared to care for your Christmas wants than this year. Our stock is complete, our store large, and our clerks are ready and anxious to wait on you. You can find something for every member of the family in our store. You are welcome to look our goods over, whether you buy or not.

Unprecedented Christmas Selling.

"Tremendously successful" is the term which fittingly applies to the past few days' business. It is gratifying to receive in this splendid manner such substantial assurance of public confidence. It means a great deal to us to realize that you have come to regard this store as a truly dependable place to buy. The stocks are still practically unbroken and those of you who have not as yet been in may see, for a few days at least, the original attractive features.

Where Old Santa Claus Reigns.

The Toy section is a Mecca for buyers these days. Here, every device that German, French and American workers have produced for the entertainment of the little ones may be seen. The Dolls for the girls and the mechanical Toys for the boys present greater fascination than ever and are to be had in a vastly larger variety. Nowhere else in this city is there such a superb array of things to bring joy to the hearts of the Children on Christmas morn. No where to spend your money to such good advantage. All must be provided quickly now.

Buy "Her" a Handsome Dinner Set.

If all that stands between you and a Christmas gift for your wife is the suggestion of the right thing, how about a new Dinner Set? China is close to the heart of every woman, your wife included. Select one of our "open stock" patterns and if a piece or two get broken she needn't break her heart about it—for she can drop in any time and replace them. These "open stocks" of ours have saved an oceanful of bitter tears. Yes, make it a Dinner Set and come here for it. We can please you.

Opportunities in Christmas Cut Glass.

Preparations starting, in some cases, months ago, reach their climax this week. Hundreds of pieces of the richest Crystal in the most fascinating cuttings are involved—Bowls, Nappies, Bonbons, high and low, Jugs, Celery and Spoon Trays, Tankards, Carafes, Vases and all the popular items made in Cut Glass, are presented in a bewildering array, at prices no other store can name for equal quality of material, superiority of workmanship and elegance of finish. The goods speak for themselves and they are here for you to critically examine. Come early.
